Prestige, uniqueness and incomparable views. This period mansion is located in one of the most desirable residential areas of the Sorrento coast, Vico Equense. Built in the late '20s, it is characterized by its strategic and dominant position, with unparalleled views of the Gulf of Naples and proximity to the renowned Villa Paradiso. Surrounded by a lush green landscape, the building offers a unique and spectacular view of the sea, articulating on four levels for a total commercial area of about 1,000 square meters. The property stands out for its versatility, being divided into different uses: three independent apartments, a storage room and two commercial spaces. The large panoramic terraces and terraced gardens stand out, covering a total area of about 2,400 square meters, perfect for savoring the surrounding beauty to the fullest. Private accesses from Via Filangieri, both pedestrian and vehicular, guarantee convenience and privacy, with indoor parking spaces and a dependence dedicated to the janitor for an autonomous and discreet management
